CHARTER.

AN ACT FOR THE INCORPORATION OF THE COLLEGE OF PHYSICIANS OF PHILADELPHIA.

1. Whereas, the Physicians of Philadelphia, influenced by a conviction of the many advantages which have arisen from literary institutions, have associated themselves under the name and title of The College of Physicians of Philadelphia.

2. And whereas, the objects of this College are to advance the science of medicine, and thereby to lessen human misery, by investigating the diseases and remedies which are peculiar to this country; by observing the effects of different seasons, climates, and situations upon the human body; by recording the changes which are produced in diseases by the progress of agriculture, arts, population, and manners; by searching for medicines in the American woods, waters, and in the bowels of the earth; by enlarging the avenues to knowledge from the discoveries and publications of foreign countries; and by cultivating order and uniformity in the practice of physic.

3. And whereas, the said College of Physicians have prayed us, the Representatives of the Freeman of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that they may be created a body politic and corporate, forever, with such powers, privileges, and immunities as may best answer the laudable purposes which the members thereof have in view ; wherefore, to assist and encourage the said College of Physicians, in the prosecution and advancement of useful knowledge, for the benefit of their country and of mankind ;

4. Be it enacted, and it is hereby enacted, by the Representatives of the Freemen of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and by the authority of the same, That the members of the said College of Physicians, that is to say, John Redman, John Jones, William Shippen, Jun., Adam Kuhn, John Morgan, Benjamin Rush, Samuel Duffield, Gerardus Clarkson, George Glentworth, Thomas Parke, James Hutchinson, Robert Harris, John Carson, Benjamin Duffield, William W. Smith, John Foulke, Samuel Powel Griffiths, William Clarkson, William Currie, Benjamin Say, Andrew Ross, John Morris, Nathan Dorsey, James Cunningham, Caspar Wistar, Jun., Michael Leib, and John H. Gibbons, be, and the same persons are, and shall be a body corporate and politic in deed and in name, by the name and style of “ THE COLLEGE OF PHYSICIANS OF PHILADELPHIA,” and by the same name, they and their successors are hereby constituted and confirmed one body corporate and politic in law, to have perpetual succession, and to be able and capable to have, hold and enjoy any goods and chattels, lands, tenements, rents, hereditaments, gifts, and bequests of what nature soever, in fee simple, or for term of years, life or lives, or otherwise ; and also to grant, sell, alien, assign, or let the same lands, tenements, and premises, according to the nature of the respective grants and bequests made to the said corporation, and of the estate of the said corporation therein ; provided that the amount of the clear yearly value of such real estate, exceed not the sum of five hundred pounds, lawful money of this commonwealth.

5. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said corporation be, and shall be forever hereafter, able and capable in law, to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, answer and be answered unto, defend and be defended, in all or any courts of justice and other places, in all manner of suits, actions, complaints, pleas, causes and matters of what nature or kind soever; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for the said corporation forever hereafter, to have and use a common seal, and the same seal, at the will and pleasure of the said corporation, to break, change, alter, and renew.

6. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That for the well ordering of the said corporation and its affairs, there shall be, at all times hereafter, the following officers of the same; that is to say, one President, one Vice-President, four Censors, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, who shall be chosen annually from amongst the fellows of the said College of Physicians, on the first Tuesday in the month of July forever hereafter, or within one calendar month after the same day, in any year; and that John Redman, be the present President of the said College; John Jones, the present Vice-President; William Shippen, Jun., Adam Kuhn, Benjamin Rush, and Samuel Duffield the present Censors; Samuel Powel Griffitts, the present Secretary; and that Gerardus Clarkson be the present Treasurer of the said College: and shall be and remain the President, Vice-President, Censors, Secretary, and Treasurer, respectively, of the said College, until they be superseded by a new election, to be made by the fellows of the said College as aforesaid; and all vacancies by death, resignation or otherwise, which shall at any time hereafter happen in any of the said offices, may be filled by a special election, to be holden so often as occasion shall require.

7. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the authorities and duties of the officers of the said corporation, who are herein before mentioned, and of any others which the said corporation shall see fit to appoint, the times of meeting of the said corporation, the admission of members, and the other concerns of the said corporation, shall be regulated by the by-laws and ordinances of the said corporation, heretofore made or to be made, touching the premises.

8. Provided always, and be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no by-laws nor ordinances of the said corporation, hereafter made, shall be binding upon the officers or members thereof, unless the same shall be proposed at one regular meeting of the said corporation, and enacted and received at another, after the intervention of at least thirty days. And that no sale, or alienation, or lease for above three years, of any part of the real estate of the said corporation, shall be valid, unless the terms and nature of such sale or lease be proposed at a previous meeting of the said corporation.

Signed by order of the House,

RICHARD PETERS, Speaker.

Enacted into a law, at Philadelphia, on Thursday the twenty-sixth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-nine.

PETER ZACHARY LLOYD,

Clerk of the General Assembly.

ORDINANCES AND BY-LAWS.

CHAPTER I.

OF OFFICERS AND THEIR DUTIES.

1. THE officers (as required by the charter) shall be a President, a Vice-President, four Censors, a Treasurer, and a Secretary, to be chosen annually, by ballot, on the first Tuesday in July, or within one calendar month thereafter.

2. The President shall maintain order, and shall sign all orders on the Treasurer, duly passed by the College. He shall have power to call special meetings at his own discretion: and it shall be his duty to call them, when requested in writing by six Fellows of the College. He shall not discuss any question while in the chair, unless it be a question of order; and shall have no vote, except when his vote may be necessary to decide a question.

3. The Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President, in the absence of the latter officer, or at his request when present; and in the absence of both the President and the Vice-President, a chairman shall be appointed viva voce.

4. The Censors shall inspect the records and examine the accounts of the College, and report thereon at the stated meeting in July. They shall take cognizance of all charges of a breach of the regulations of the College, preferred against a member, and shall consider and determine the same, and report thereon to the College; provided that, in cases where a Censor is one of the parties concerned, the charge shall be referred to a committee of three, to be chosen by ballot, who shall act as censors pro hac vice.

5. An appeal from the decision of the Censors to the College, in these cases, shall always be reserved.

6. The Treasurer shall collect and receive all the moneys due to the College, and pay them only on the order of the President or other officer, who may have presided at the meeting at which the appropriation was passed; and these orders shall be his vouchers for his expenditures. He shall present annually a statement of the finances of the College, at the stated meeting in June, and at such other times as the College shall direct.

7. The Secretary shall keep minutes of the proceedings of the College, and record them in a book provided for the purpose. He shall keep a list of the members, on which he shall note the date of the election of each; the time of his death, resignation, or loss of membership, and the residence of associates. He shall receive and preserve all books of records and papers belonging to the College, provide certificates of membership, and perform such other duties as are appropriate to his office.

CHAPTER II.

OF MEMBERS AND MEMBERSHIP.

1. The College shall consist of Fellows and Associates.

2. The Fellows shall be practitioners of medicine, of good character in their profession, residing within the city and incorporated districts of Philadelphia, and who are more than twenty-four years of age.

3. The Associates shall be distinguished practitioners of medicine, residing without the limits above mentioned.

4. Every candidate for membership shall be proposed in writing, at a stated meeting, by three Fellows, and balloted for at the next or some subsequent stated meeting; and if three fourths of the Fellows present be in his favour, he shall be pronounced duly elected, provided, that no election of a Fellow shall be gone into, unless there be present at least twelve Fellows.

5. No person elected a Fellow of this College shall be deemed a member, until he shall have subscribed the ordinances and by-laws, and paid his initiation fee; and if he omit the signing and payment above mentioned for three months, his election shall become void.

6. Any Fellow who shall decline the payment of his annual contribution for two successive years, shall forfeit his membership.

7. No Associate, who may come to reside within the limits described in Chapter II. Sect. 2, shall be admitted to a Fellowship in the College, without being elected and introduced in the manner prescribed for the admission of Fellows.

8. The number of Associates shall not exceed forty, ten of whom shall be foreigners.

9. Associates shall have the privilege of attending the meetings of the College, but shall take no part in the transaction of business.

10. The initiation fee shall be ten dollars, payable at or before the time of signing the ordinances and by-laws; and the annual contribution shall be three dollars, payable at the stated meeting in July.

11. The signing of the Constitution adopted in 1788, shall be deemed a subscription to the ordinances and by-laws of the College, in force for the time being.

12. Every member of the College shall receive a certificate of membership according to the annexed form, having the seal of the College affixed thereto, and signed by the President, Vice-President, and Censors, and countersigned by the Secretary:

Nos, Præses et Vice-Præses Collegii Medicorum Philadelphiensis, omnibus ad quos hæc pervenerint salutem.

CHAPTER III.

OF MEETINGS,

1. The Stated Meetings shall be held on the first Tuesday in every month; from October to March inclusive, at 7 P.M.; and from April to September inclusive, at 8 P.M., at which hour precisely, or as soon thereafter as a quorum, which shall consist of seven Fellows, shall have assembled, the meeting shall be organized.

2. At stated meetings the following shall be the order of business:

- 1st. The minutes of the preceding meeting shall be read for approval or correction.
- 2d. Newly elected Fellows may be introduced.
- 3d. Candidates for membership shall be balloted for.
- 4th. Committees shall report.
- 5th. Motions and observations respecting the private business of the College may be made.

6th. Written communications.

7th. Verbal communications.

8th. Miscellaneous business.

3. At the stated meeting in June, the Treasurer and the Library Committee shall present their annual reports; the President shall nominate the standing committee on the Library, and shall appoint individual members to report severally on the following subjects, viz.

1st. Public Hygiène.

2d. The Theory and Practice of Medicine.

3d. Surgery.

4th. Midwifery.

5th. Diseases of Women.

6th. Diseases of Children.

7th. Materia Medica.

8th. Meteorology and Epidemics.

These reports shall embrace a review of such interesting facts and doctrines, pertaining to the respective subjects, as may have been offered to the profession during the preceding year.

4. At the stated meeting in July, after the third item in the order of business shall have been despatched, the Censors shall present their annual report; the annual appropriation for the library shall be made; and the officers of the College for the ensuing year shall be elected; after which, the business of the College shall proceed in the usual order.

5. At the stated meeting in September, the report on Public Hygiène shall be made.

6. At the stated meeting in October, the report on the Theory and Practice of Medicine shall be made.

7. At the stated meeting in November, the report on Surgery shall be made.

8. At the stated meeting in December, the report on Midwifery shall be made.

9. At the stated meeting in January, the report on Meteorology and Epidemics shall be made.

10. At the stated meeting in February, the report on the Diseases of Women shall be made.

11. At the stated meeting in March, the report on the Diseases of Children shall be made.

12. At the stated meeting in April, the report on Materia Medica shall be made.

13. At special meetings no business shall be transacted except that for which they shall be called.

CHAPTER IV.

OF COMMITTEES.

1. The Committee on the Library shall attend to the increase and preservation of the Library; under the direction of the College, the Committee shall purchase books, and carry into effect all such regulations pertaining to the Library as may be adopted by the College, and shall present a report upon its condition at the stated meeting in June. The Committee shall retain all papers referred to it by the College, and cause them to be published under its direction.

2. The following shall be the ordinary mode of appointing Special Committees, which, however, may be varied on any occasion by a vote of the College. The President shall nominate one member, who shall be chairman of the committee, and considered responsible for the due performance of the duties enjoined on the committee. The chairman shall nominate the second member, the second the third, and so on, until the number agreed on shall be completed.

3. Committees shall report at the meeting immediately succeeding their appointment, unless it may be otherwise determined by an order or by-law of the College ; and failing to make a final report at the proper time, unless a satisfactory reason therefor be given, they shall be discharged, and the matter dropped or referred to another committee, as the College shall determine.

4. All reports shall be made in writing, and signed by the members agreeing thereto.

CHAPTER V.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. No question shall be considered open for discussion, except when brought forward by motion duly made and seconded, and then distinctly stated by the presiding officer. The name of the mover of each motion to be entered upon the minutes.

2. Every motion shall be reduced to writing by the mover, if the presiding officer or any Fellow request the same.

3. Any Fellow may call for the division of a question, provided it comprehends two distinct propositions. A motion to strike out and insert shall be deemed indivisible ; but a motion to strike out shall not preclude either amendment or a motion to strike out and insert.

4. The mover, with the consent of the seconder, may withdraw any motion previously to its amendment, commitment, or to the question upon its final passage being put by the presiding officer.

5. When a Fellow speaks he shall stand up, addressing himself to the presiding officer, and confining himself strictly to the question under consideration.

6. No Fellow shall be interrupted while speaking except by a call to order, or for the purpose of explanation.

7. The presiding officer shall decide all calls to order ;

unless an appeal be made to the College, in which case the person appealing shall first state his reasons for appealing, and then the presiding officer his reasons in support of his decision, but no further debate shall be allowed.

8. No Fellow shall be allowed to speak more than twice upon the same question, without permission being granted him by the College.

9. Whilst a question is under consideration, no motion shall be received excepting to adjourn, to lay the subject upon the table, to postpone, to refer to a committee, or to amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are named.

10. A motion for adjournment shall always be in order, except when the College is voting on another question, or while a Fellow is speaking.

11. A motion to amend an amendment is in order, but not one to amend an amendment to the amendment. The question on the amendment shall be decided before that on the main question.

12. No motion shall be received to postpone the motion under discussion for the purpose of introducing a substitute.

13. A motion for postponement shall preclude commitment, and one for commitment shall preclude amendment, or a decision on the original question.

14. Motions for postponement, to lay upon the table, and for adjournment, shall always be determined without debate.

15. A motion that has been negatived, cannot be again brought forward at the same meeting, excepting upon a motion to reconsider.

16. No question shall be reconsidered, excepting on the motion of two Fellows, who voted with the majority when the question was decided, and submitted at the meeting at which the same was discussed.

17. When a blank is to be filled, the question shall be first taken on the largest sum, greatest number, and remotest period.

18. Two Fellows may demand the yeas and nays on any question which is not required to be decided by ballot, and have them entered upon the minutes. The presiding officer in such cases shall always vote last.

19. No order shall be taken upon the report of any special committee, excepting to refer it back to the committee, to lay it upon the table, or to obtain the sense of the College in relation to the resolutions appended thereto.

20. The presiding officer shall not discuss any subject while in the chair, but may assign his reasons on deciding a question of order. He shall have no vote excepting on a ballot, or upon a call for the yeas and nays.

CHAPTER VI.

OF THE TRANSACTIONS.

1. Every written communication, intended for a place in the Transactions, shall be referred to a special committee, to be appointed at the time the paper is offered, who shall report upon the propriety of its publication. Such papers as are approved by the College shall be put into the hands of the Library Committee; and such papers as it shall not be deemed advisable to insert in the Transactions, shall be put into the hands of the secretary, to be deposited in the archives of the College, subject to withdrawal by the author.

2. No paper read before the College shall be published, as having been so read, without the consent of the majority of the members present at the reading thereof,—this consent to be expressed by vote.

CHAPTER VII.

OF THE LIBRARY.

1. At the stated meeting in July, the College shall appropriate such a sum as may be deemed compatible with its funds, for the use of the Library, for the ensuing year.

2. At the close of the stated meetings, and at such other times as the Library Company shall designate, any member may take out any book or set of books; which he may retain till the next stated meeting. He shall enter his name in a book kept for the purpose, and the time at which books are taken out shall be noted.

3. If a book be kept out longer than from one stated meeting to another, or beyond the stated meeting next after the time when it was borrowed, the member so retaining it, shall pay to the treasurer twenty-five cents for each volume so kept; and one dollar for every month afterwards.

4. If a book be lost by a member, he shall either replace it, or pay to the treasurer double the value thereof, or of the set of books to which it belongs.

5. At the stated meeting in May, all the books shall be returned to the Library, to enable the Library Committee to make their final report.

CHAPTER VIII.

RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT.

1. No Fellow shall attend or prescribe for a patient, who has previously employed another Fellow of the College in the same illness, unless it be in consultation with the first physician, or in case of relinquishment, or of sudden emergency, when the said physician cannot be found.

2. When a Fellow of this College is called to a family in an emergent case, because the family physician is not at hand, he shall resign the patient to the family physician, unless the physician or the family desire his assistance in consultation.

3. If, during the absence or sickness of any physician, a patient, who may have been under his charge at the time of his departure or attack, or have called upon him for assistance during his absence or sickness, or in any way given it to be understood, that he regarded him as his regular medical attendant, shall call in another physician, the latter shall on the return or recovery of the former, offer, with the consent of the patient, to surrender the case.

4. In cases of consultation, neither of the physicians shall offer any opinion, or give any directions respecting the patient, until they have retired to a private place; and the physician who was first in attendance, shall communicate their direction to the patient or attendants.

5. To enable practitioners to exhibit uniformity in the rate of charging, it is proposed that no entry shall be made in their account books of lower fees than those contained in the following table. If in any case, however, the physician should have reason to believe that his patient cannot pay the full amount without serious inconvenience, a deduction may be made at the end of the year, at the moment of rendering the bill, or at any other time. But the fee-bill, as at present established by the College, being founded on a just consideration of the important services which its members are called on to perform, it is their duty to conform to it in their charges, whenever the circumstances of their patients are not such as clearly to forbid it.

6. TABLE OF CHARGES FOR PROFESSIONAL SERVICES.

For a single visit in a case,.....	$1	to	10
When detained, for each hour,.....	2	to	5

For an ordinary visit,	1	to	2

CHAPTER IX.

OF THE REVISION AND ENACTMENT OF ORDINANCES AND BY-LAWS.

1. No new nor amended ordinance or by-law (see the last clause of the Act of Incorporation) shall be binding on the Officers or Members of the College unless it shall be proposed in writing and subscribed by five members, at one stated meeting, and enacted or passed at another, after the intervention of at least thirty days, nor unless it shall be passed by a majority of two thirds, when there are not less than twelve members present.

2. When it shall be in order for the College to act on an ordinance or by-law, it shall be announced to members in their notices.
